PREMIER TRUST, INC

BANK DEPOSIT SWEEP PROGRAM DISCLOSURE

Please read the complete Disclosure Document describing the Bank Deposit Sweep Program ("BDSP").

Premier Trust, Inc. offers to you one cash sweep vehicle that is used to hold available cash balances. Available cash in your account will be deposited through the Bank Deposit Sweep Program ("BDSP").

The BDSP is:

- a) An interest-bearing FDIC Insurance Eligible Program at one or more FDIC insured depository institutions. The list of banks participating in the BDSP ("BDSP Bank List") is available from your Administrator.
- b) Funds will be swept into the BDSP at one of the participating banks up to the maximum FDIC Insured deposit amount of $250,000. Funds exceeding the maximum deposit amount will be swept into an alternate participating bank, until all funds are deposited. Once funds equal the maximum deposit amount in all participating banks, additional funds will be swept into an excess participating bank, which the funds will be ineligible for FDIC Coverage.
- c) The interest rate for your BDSP Deposits may be obtained from your Administrator. Your balances will earn the same rate of interest regardless of the participating bank with which your funds are deposited. The interest rate earned by the BDSP will vary.
- d) Clients, with non-retirement account types, interest earned from the BDSP will be taxed as ordinary income in the year it is received. Premier Trust does not give tax advice. You should consult your own tax professional about how the BDSP affects you.
- e) The statement for your Account will indicate your ending BDSP Deposits at each Bank as of the last business day of the statement period. Also, net sweeps to and from the BDSP and interest credited to your BDSP will reflect on your statement.
- f) The BDSP may create financial benefits for Premier Trust or intermediaries. It may differ depending on the amount of cash being deposited, length of time deposited and current interest rates received.

Premier Trust, Inc. Privacy Policy

At Premier Trust, Inc., protecting your privacy and the confidentiality of your personal information is important to us. We value your business and the trust you put in us, and to offer you the financial products and services you seek, we collect, maintain and use information about you. To help you better understand how your personal information is protected at Premier Trust, Inc., we are providing you with the following statement describing our practices and policies with respect to the privacy of your customer information. In the event you terminate your customer relationship with us, or become an inactive customer, we will continue to adhere to the policies and practices described in this notice.

Information We Collect About You

As your trusted financial institution, we collect, retain and use nonpublic personal information about individual current and former customers to provide services to our customers. We may collect the following categories of nonpublic personal information about you:

- Information we receive from you, through applications for our products or services or other forms; □ Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates or with nonaffiliated third parties;
- Information we receive through our Customer Identification Program (CIP).

Information We Disclose About You and To Whom

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our customers or former customers except as required by law and/or with other parties for your business benefit. Information will only be shared with those with whom we have signed agreements and who will honor the same tenets of this policy. Pursuant to this Privacy Policy, any other parties agree that they shall protect confidential customer information and shall not disclose any confidential information to any third party or use it for any purpose except to perform its business obligations.

Your funds may be deposited into pooled accounts at various depository institutions in a manner designed to provide you with up to $250,000 FDIC insurance per participating institution. Our third party may allocate these deposits among a number of designated institutions to maximize FDIC insurance coverage, which protects you in the event of a bank failure. All participating banks in the program are depository institutions duly chartered under the law of the United States or a State thereof, the deposits of which are insured by the FDIC.

Information We Share

An affiliate is a company we own or control, a company that owns or controls us, or a company that is owned or controlled by the same company that owns or controls us. Ownership does not mean complete ownership, but means owning enough to have control.

A nonaffiliated third party is a person we do not employ or a company that is not an affiliate of ours.

Premier Trust, Inc. does not disclose nonpublic personal information about you to any nonaffiliated third parties, unless required by law or as specifically authorized by our customer. Examples of this might include disclosures necessary to service your account or prevent unauthorized transactions.

Within affiliated companies, circumstances may arise wherein we will share information so that we can work together to serve you. However, trust account information is not shared for marketing purposes without specific consent from our customers.

Please note: Premier Trust, Inc. may continue to contact its individual customers with offers for its own products and services. You may continue to receive marketing messages via your statement, as well as direct marketing solicitations. Premier Trust, Inc. does not sell customer information to third parties nor does it share customer information with outside parties who may wish to market their products to you.

We Protect Your Information

The protection of your nonpublic personal information is of the utmost importance to us. Premier Trust, Inc. maintains strict practices and procedures to safeguard your privacy in accordance with this privacy policy. We restrict employee access to customer information to only those who have a business reason to know such information, and we educate our employees about the importance of confidentiality and customer privacy.

FEE SCHEDULE DISCLOSURES

- This fee schedule represents a discounted version of the normal fee arrangement assessed by Premier Trust, and is being implemented due to the low level of activity currently projected for this account. Upon the death of the Grantor, it is understood that Premier Trust reserves the right, upon 30 days written notice to the beneficiaries, to implement the full fee schedule applicable at that time which is currently in effect for accounts of a similar nature.
- After account has been established, any transaction, maintenance and extraordinary fees will be automatically deducted from liquid cash at the end of each quarter, if funds are available. If funds are not available, you will be invoiced at the end of each quarter, with each invoice being due no later than 30 calendar days after date of billing.
- Premier Trust requires you maintain a cash balance of $500 in your account at all times.
- If fees are not paid and cannot be deducted from available cash within 30 days from the date of invoicing, a $25 late fee will be assessed and billed quarterly to the account. Premier Trust may liquidate assets from the account, without notice, for the sufficient amount to cover the fees due.
- Annual administrative fee does not include Brokerage Commissions on trades placed by Premier Trust, Inc. through its or client's selected Broker(s). These costs will be charged directly to the account. If trade placed through Premier Trust's selected Broker, a portion of the fee may be paid as compensation to a Director of Premier Trusts.
- Unfunded accounts and accounts with a zero value continue to incur administrative fees until the account is closed either by the Grantor/Depositor or by the Trustee/Custodian upon resignation.
- Fee invoices for the Grantor/Depositor may be generated if so requested in advance of the period for which the billing cycle is ending.
- Apart from fees charged by Premier Trust, there may be certain fees and charges connected with the investment holdings in your account. These fees may include, but are not limited to: sales commissions, distribution fees, annual maintenance fees, investment management fees, set up fees, surrender or termination fees, independent appraisal fees for non-marketable assets. To find out what fees apply, read the prospectus or contract which will describe the terms of the investment you chose.

Due to the unique nature of each self-directed IRA, it is not possible to delineate all of the possible expenses or services that may be associated with the effective administration of the account. While this fee schedule has been prepared in an effort to address all of the types of services generally common to all such accounts, the list of services delineated in this agreement is not exhaustive. Therefore, it is understood between the Grantor/Depositor and Premier Trust that reasonable compensation for unusual services rendered which are not normally incurred in the account administration, including, but not limited to issues related to tax returns, registered mail, overnight postage, services involving closely-held businesses, sub-dividing real estate, sales of real estate, sales of business properties, complicated tax matters and questions, litigation, special servicing of assets, extraordinary services in the pricing of account asset(s), etc. Should special needs arise that fall outside the issues contemplated by this fee agreement, necessitating the incursion of fees by Premier Trust, we will provide an estimate to the Grantor as to the additional fees associated with the provision of said services and will require written approval from the Grantor before providing the proposed services.
